Frequently Asked Questions

How many cards are in the set?

There are 100 cards in the set.

What level of difficulty are the cards?

The cards are designed to be accessible to students of all levels. However, some cards may be more challenging than others.

How long should I study with the cards?

It depends on your individual needs. However, we recommend studying for at least 30 minutes each day.

What is the best way to use the cards?

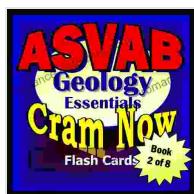

We recommend using the cards in a spaced repetition system. This means studying the cards for a short period of time, then taking a break, and then studying them again later. This helps to improve your retention of the information.
