Characters

Lugh Tuatha Dé

A skilled assassin shrouded in mystery, Lugh possesses an unrivaled ability that allows him to mimic the powers of those he has slain. Driven by a tormented past and a thirst for revenge, he secretly harbors the true extent of his abilities, masquerading as a mere pawn in the grand scheme of things.

Maha

A legendary hero revered throughout Alleius, Maha wields an unmatched mastery of swordsmanship. However, beneath his illustrious persona lies a troubled soul plagued by doubts and a longing for normalcy. As he crosses paths with Lugh, Maha faces a profound challenge to his beliefs and identity.

Tiana

A cunning and ambitious princess, Tiana yearns to ascend to the throne. She sees Lugh as a pawn in her Machiavellian schemes, manipulating him to further her own sinister agenda. However, as she delves deeper into the intricacies of Lugh's true nature, Tiana realizes the extent of her folly.

Plot

The narrative unfolds as Lugh and Maha become entangled in a perilous journey that tests their mettle and uncovers the secrets of their past. As they confront formidable adversaries and forge unexpected alliances, the true nature of their abilities and the delicate balance of power within Alleius are brought into question.

Through a series of thrilling encounters and intricate twists, the novel explores themes of deception, identity, and the weight of destiny. Lugh's unwavering determination to avenge his past clashes with Maha's struggle to reconcile his true self with the hero he is expected to be.
